THE BOND APPROVED.

Judge Dundy Orders the Smith Stock Into the Hands of Receiver Woolworth,

Yesterday another important step was taken in the Smith case, which has for the past two or three weeks been pending in the U. S. tribunal.

Court convened in the morning, Judge his infant daughter Sunday morning at the Dundy in the chair, and after an examination of the report of the fincondition of the sureties on Cole and Lowy's bond, Mesers. Woodworth, Mills and Hanlon, United States Marshal Bierbower decided to accept the bond. The sitaching creditors, seeing that further fight was useless, decided to accept the security, and so notified the judge.

After reviewing the circumstances of the case briefly, Judge Dundy Issued the following order, for the marshal to turn the exception of the defendants to the sufficiency of the sureties on the delivery bond taken and approved by the marshal, it is ordered that the said bond and the sureties thereon be approved, and that the marshal deliver the property in ques-tion to the plaintiff. And it is ordered and adjudged that the plaintiff have and recover from said defendants the cost of this action from the filing of the exceptions to this date, to be taxed by the ELMER S. > Judge Dandy, in commenting upon the bond, remarked that he considered it good for at least $300,000, and had no hesitation in saying that it would furnish ample security for $110,000, the amount required. At 2:30 yesterday afternoon Marshal Bierbower turned the property over to Cole, and simultaneously Cole transferred it to Receiver Woolworth. Mr. Wooworth will immediately proceed to take the inventory of the goods as ordered by Judge Dundy.

Baseball Tips Manager Kay, of the Athletic park, is corresponding with the clubs of St. Joseph and Leavenworth, with a view to securing them for a series of games here. The St' Joseph team wants to come here Saturday and Sunday, but want a guarantee of $175 for three games. Terms have been telegraphed them, to which no answer has yet been made. The Leavenworth club want to come here on the 221 and 23d, and it is probable that the series will be arranged.

The local baseball enthusiasts are awaiting anxiously that $1,000 challenge from the Hastings team which was to have appeared in the "Clipper." If the challenge is ever made it will be promptly accepted.
